Coming Soon - Patron Memberships

You asked, we listened – the Patron membership is coming!

We are pleased to announce that the long-awaited Patron-level membership will soon be available. This membership level is intended for dedicated members who find themselves able and wish to further support the Society and their fellow members as valued Patrons

Along with all the privileges of a Sustaining membership level, the Patron level will include benefits such as:

Exclusive access to rare digital content

Limited-edition commemorative SCA merchandise

A commemorative membership card and record of Patronage

Grateful acknowledgment in Society publications such as the Annual Report

As a Patron-level member of the Society, your membership dues will go that much further, directly contributing to the growth and sustainability of the organization, and helping us to continue to provide exceptional experiences, resources, and support to our members worldwide.

The Patron Membership is part of ongoing work related to enhancing the benefits of membership to the Society at every level as each and every membership is valued,

Stay tuned for further updates and a request for commentary.
